PAJAMA DRIVE: Alicia Corneau, a past parent, has taken on a wonderful project for the 5th year in a row. She is teaming up with Scholastic Books who will be donating one new book for every new pair of children's pajamas we collect for needy children. She will get them to a local charity. Any questions contact her: aliciacorneau@yahoo.com. If you are interested and have not done so, please buy a new pair of PJ's for a needy child and bring them to school before Dec.12th. We already have 18 pairs!
